Upcoming Spring Happenings

- Cantor Alison Levine

Hello everyone! It seems unbelievable how quickly the fall went this year. We had our High Holy Days, Thanksgiving came and before you knew it, Chanukah and New Year's Eve. And while the weather might be cold and grey now, there are a bunch of happenings this spring that will cheer you right up!

On January 23rd, I started an Adult Hebrew 2 class, Beyond the Alef-Bet, that meets on Monday nights from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. and runs through mid-June at the temple. This course, which is free for all TBE partners, is for those who can read Hebrew and who want to learn more about Hebrew vocabulary and grammar as it relates to Jewish texts. If you missed my Adult Hebrew 1 class last year, Robin Faigenbaum will be teaching a beginner's class on the Hebrew Alef-Bet (alphabet) this May. More details to come.

This March, I will be teaching a three-part introductory class on Shabbat at Temple Beth El. This class will be focused on the format of the Shabbat service and I will be teaching some of the regular melodies that we use in our worship. I will explain our TBE minhag or traditions such as our different Friday night services and versions of musical settings that might be specific to TBE. It's a great introduction for those who are new to Temple Beth El or are less familiar with services. Join me on Sunday, March 12th at 2:00 p.m., March 19th at 4:00 p.m. and March 26th at 2:00 p.m.

You might have noticed above that on Sunday, March 19th, my Shabbat class is later. That's because there will be an amazing, first ever Temple Beth El Talent Show at 2:00 p.m. Shameless plug, Chloe is participating and in my unbiased opinion that will be the cutest. Come to the talent show and stay for some Shabbat knowledge!

Also, mark your calendars: I will be leading the Sisterhood Women's Seder on Thursday, March 23rd. It is always a wonderful time to come together, have fun and celebrate the exodus from Egypt, without the dishes or the cleaning!

Last but not least, I am throwing a Cantor's Pizza Party on Friday evening, April 28th at 6:00 p.m. before Shabbat services. Come together for good food and schmoozing; a fun and relaxing way to enter Shabbat!

Phew! What a list. There is always something happening here. Keep your eyes peeled for more updates on these events as we get closer. I look forward to seeing you all soon!

Adult Purim Celebration

Monday, March 6th at 7:00 p.m.

Join Rabbi Jeff and Cantor Alison in the Sanctuary at 7:00 (in person or watch the live-stream) as we read the Megillah (the Scroll of Esther) and recount the survival tale known as the Purim story. Bring a box of mac-n-cheese, rice, pasta or any other dry good to shake instead of groggers. It would be appreciated if you donated the box to our food pantry after the service.

Gather in the Great Room (in person only) as we have some fun finding out which Purim character will have the chance at a dream date.

Parental discretion advised. Some content may not be appropriate for younger children. Hamentashen and wine will be served. R.S.V.P. to templeoffice@tbeli.org. There is no charge for this event!

Mazal Tov...

To Eli Noah, who became a Bar Mitzvah at Temple Beth El on Saturday, January 21, 2023.

To Brayden LaCorte, who became a Bar Mitzvah at Temple Beth El on Saturday, January 28, 2023.

To Takoda Polizzi Rothman, who became a Bar Mitzvah at Temple Beth El on Saturday, February 4, 2023.

To Paula Edelman, who became a Bat Mitzvah at Temple Beth El on Saturday, February 11, 2023.

ADOPT AN ONEG

What a great way to:

- Recognize a special event
- Celebrate a birthday or anniversary
- Commemorate an important occasion
- Or simply contribute to Temple Beth El

It's easy as 1-2-3:

1. Call the temple office to choose a date and occasion
2. Decide whether you want to shop for your oneg
3. Donate $125 or more and we'll take care of everything!

Condolences...

- To Louis Kurtzberg and family, on the death of his son, Damon Kurtzberg, on October 27, 2022.
- To Jason Gillet and family, on the death of his brother, Bill Gillet, on December 30, 2022.
- To Una Warde and family, on the death of her sister, Frances Bridget Regan, on January 21, 2023.
- To Erin Rechler and family, on the death of her father, Brian Jobson, on February 1, 2023.
- To Jenny Kellerman and family, on the death of her cousin, Ellen Outcault, on February 4, 2023.

The Religious School has been abuzz with activity as students have embraced the holiday season. From the energy in the classrooms to the enthusiasm of the students, it's clear that the educational program is focused on giving the kids the opportunity to explore their Jewish culture while developing a sense of community and service.

The Social Action Committee has been a leader in the effort to get students involved in various programming around the community. They have included collecting items and wrapping gifts for Birthday Wishes (children who are displaced and in need with our community and communities around us) as well as making sandwiches for those who are hungry in the community. They supported hospice house families by baking and making care packages and now we are excited to partake in helping with the Baby Boutique. The boutique specifically focuses on families in need with young children to provide them with essentials such as baby clothes and supplies. The students relish in the opportunity to make a difference in their community and are excited to donate their time and resources.

Our Religious School students have showcased their enthusiasm for learning and caring for their learning in classes about values, traditions, mitzvot, life cycles, Israel, the Holocaust and of course reading and understanding prayers. We have had amazing feedback from our exciting family education programs with Rabbi, youth groups and "Munchkin and Me" program for our little ones. With an exciting holiday season and dedicated classroom education, the students have embraced their individual strengths and have proven to be the true definition of what it means to be a mensch, by taking an active role in their learning and helping those in need.

Empathy and compassion are essential elements of working to create lasting social change and well-rounded morally driven youth. It is important to have an understanding of the issues faced by a population and to use kindness and understanding in order to help those facing these issues. At the same time, it is also important to be hardworking, dedicated, and resourceful when tackling big challenges. Through their work, dedication and insight, the students gain the abilities that can affect change and have effectiveness through social action work. In the classroom, such qualities can also play an important role in helping students to think deeply and critically about the world around them.

Our new parent volunteer initiative being led by Daniel and Lynne Eig has proven invaluable. Our parents have jumped in to help out in the kitchen and at the front desk. They offer to lend a hand in every way, which affords us the opportunity to keep special treats coming for the kids, like bagels, challah and juice. They provide extra eyes around the building to help in our safety initiatives as well as provide extra hands for holidays and special events. We are so excited for the Religious School Fundraiser Talent Show! Please keep an eye out for temple emails regarding this great event with our students, parents and teachers performing in the show.

I am grateful for our students, teaching staff for Sue Seiler, our Social Action Committee, Religious School Committee and parent volunteers, for their endless efforts and dedication to making our Religious School the truly magical place that it is.

Temple Beth El has exciting news: TBE's Got Talent is coming up and will be directed by me, Maddy Teicher. I have a Master's Degree in Educational Theater and have performed in shows and also directed a few shows as well. For our talent show, you can sing, dance, do magic, tell jokes, play an instrument or act out a scene from a favorite book or show. You can do this by yourself or with another student, sibling, parent or friend! Students and madrachim can also help out backstage or during intermission or hand out playbills.

Here are some other things to know:

1. You will have to provide your own costumes, props and make-up.
2. Your act, song or dance should be 4 minutes or less.
3. When you start thinking about your talent, decide on something simple and easy.
4. You will have to find time to practice at home a few times before the day of the show.

A first rehearsal is scheduled for Sunday, March 12th at 3:00 p.m. and a dress rehearsal will be on Saturday, March 18th at 10:00 a.m. The date of the show is Sunday, March 19th at 2:00 p.m. If you would like to sign up, please email Stephanie Kellerman right away at vpops@tbeli.org.

Seats will be sold at the door for $18.00 each. We hope to have a great turn out and raise a lot of much needed money for our Religious School. The congregation is also invited to sponsor the show for a donation of $36.00 if you want a special tribute to a specific performer.

I look forward to working with everyone and it will be a great show! William Shakespeare once said, "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players."

Save the date for our annual Temple Community Celebration

Saturday Evening, June 3rd, 2023 - more details to come!

Our last Brotherhood luncheon at the temple was held on January 8th and was well attended over a repast of bagels with all the fixings. A presentation was given by our Religious School Director, Samara Rossi who gave us a brief introduction to ALICE training, which addressed active shooter situations and what to do to survive and protect others.

ROMEO: Retired Old Men Eating Out (or Online) continues to meet on Zoom or in person at the temple most Wednesdays from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. We enjoy the company of one another, sharing jokes, humorous stories, funny video clips and an occasional educational segment. All are invited regardless of work status, gender or age.

Brotherhood helped with the Chanukah Bash, running the fun Brotherhood Dreidel Table and doling out Chanukah gelt to the players and just about everyone else. Our helpers this year were Steve Karp and daughter Sophie, Harley Kudler, Ian Weitz and Mike Widawsky. Brotherhood members singing in the temple's choir included Barry Schwalb, Peter Chiaccharo, Tom Cohn and Doug Gilman. Brotherhood member Peter Wayne, also our Chai Club President, ran the Mad Libs Table.

The next Brotherhood Project we worked on was with the Library and Temple Beautification Committees. We painted the temple library to help create an adult corner, where parents can hang out, chat over a cup of coffee or read a book while waiting for their kids to finish Religious School instead of heading home!

Please let us know your email address for correspondence by letting Mike know at michaelwidawsky@yahoo.com.

The Brotherhood is the group of guys, of all ages, among which there is fellowship and a desire to serve the temple and the temple community. We are the guys who listen to your stories. Come to a meeting with a plan for a project and/or a get together and Brotherhood will try to make it happen. Kindly support the good works of the group by joining, even if you're unable to participate!

Thank you so much for supporting and donating to our December Toy Drive that benefitted our Birthday-in-a-Duffle Project. Every month, we create duffle bags filled with party goods and birthday gifts that are made specifically for each student. The school districts gather information about their interests, hobbies or needs and we try and create a wonderful birthday celebration for them. This year, we added Farmingdale to our list of school districts that also include South Huntington, Harborfields, Commack and Wyandanch. The students are identified under The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, a federal law that supports the education of children experiencing homelessness. We work with the liaison at each school district who provides us first names only and individual student interests. We are so fortunate to have so many volunteers and interested people who eagerly shop, wrap or donate to this project. All financial donations are made to TBE Social Action Fund with a specific designation to Birthday Wishes. Anyone interested in learning more about this program can reach out to Elisa at emcd612@gmail.com or Sue at sseiler27@gmail.com.

Second Night Passover Seder

Thursday, April 6th, 5:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Join Rabbi Jeff and Cantor Alison leading us in prayer and song as we gather in person for a Multi-generational Second Night Seder. To gather in person as a temple community brings more meaning to this special holiday. How wonderful it will be to see you there.

Cost per person (meat and vegetarian options available):

Partners and extended family members: $42

Non-Partners: $48

Children 12 and under: $26

Children 5 and under: FREE!

Kindly R.S.V.P. to the office no later than March 15th. Payments are non-refundable.

A 3% fee will be added to all credit card payments. Sorry, we cannot bill your temple account.

Please make checks payable to Temple Beth El (please write Second Night Seder in the memo).

Questions? Email templeoffice@tbeli.org or call (631) 421-5835, Ext. 200.

Sisterhood Invites You to Join Knitzvah!

Knitzvah Is For Everyone Who...

...knits, crochets, weaves or looms or otherwise works with fiber.

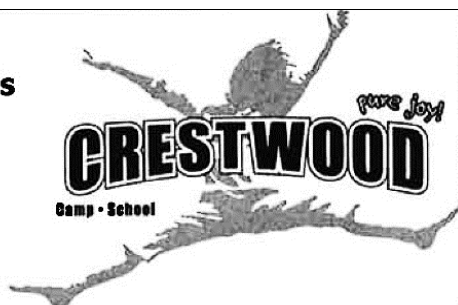

All are welcome regardless of skill level or experience. Whether you are just starting out or are a seasoned crafter, come discover a warm, inclusive community within our TBE family.

While we intend to focus on creating projects (scarves, mittens, headbands, hats, baby blankets) to donate to worthy causes, we all intersperse our mitzvot with personal projects which we like to share.

So please join us to do good deeds, work on our own projects, create together, chat and enjoy each other's company. Sometimes we meet in person, and sometimes on Zoom. Keep an eye out for information about our next meeting. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email Sarah Lichtenstein at sclesq00@gmail.com.

I recently called a temple partner just to say hello as part of my annual call endeavor. My plan is to call and connect with every temple partner a few times a year. This call began like many others: confirming contact information, talking about partnership and your connection to Temple Beth El, and anything else leadership should know. While chatting, this person said that s/he was having health issues and recently had surgery. Luckily, this person was on the mend and feeling better. I said "I wished we had known because someone could have called to see how you were doing, if you needed anything or if you needed the Caring Committee or Clergy to reach out." I chatted about my role as Partnership Liaison and that I am here to liaise for our temple partners.

Please don't hesitate to call me anytime at (631) 421-5835, Ext. 206 or email me (tbepartners@tbeli.org) and let me know how we, as a temple community, can be there to support you! While I do spend time following up on temple pledges and planning events, my role at TBE extends far beyond that. I want to get to know you better and what we can do for you. If you are facing illness, hardship and anything else we are here to lend strength and support. After all, isn't that what friends and family do for each other? We are in this together, so let us be there for you!

Room Rentals

Temple Beth El is open for in-person events. Did you know we rent out space during times when the temple building is not in use? We can host theater productions, seminars, various classes of all types, meetings, etc. This is a great way to utilize our building during down times and also provides us with additional revenue. Call (631) 421-5835 for more details or with any questions.

Got Leftovers? We Can Help!

If you've recently had an event (a shiva, luncheon, party, etc.) and find yourself inundated with lots of leftover food, don't toss it - we can help! We have volunteers who can pick it up or you can drop it off at the temple and we'll make sure it goes to a local organization or food pantry. Email Sue Seiler at sseiler27@gmail.com or Carol Werblin at cwerblin@hotmail.com.

Matching Contributions

Do you work for a company that makes matching donations to non-profit organizations? Your Partnership Pledge and other donations to Temple Beth El are eligible for a matching donations. This is a great way to maximize your contribution! Call (631) 421-5835 for more information.
