Volume 1 - 2023/2024

Grateful for Community

- Rabbi Jeff Clopper

It felt like déjà vu, but it was real.

Just last summer, mere days before leaving for the Jewish summer camp I frequent each year, I received a call. After years of struggling with Alzheimer's disease, my mother had died. Rather than heading to camp, my wife, kids, and I headed to Massachusetts for a funeral and the shivah that followed.

Flash forward to this summer - once again I was ready to head to camp. Once again, I received a call, only I knew this one was coming. My grandfather who had in May reached 108 years old had just died. Rather than packing the car for camp, Carol, my kids, and I gathered our things to head back to Massachusetts. Another funeral, another time to gather and share a sense of loss and grief.

Some may immediately think, "Perhaps Rabbi Jeff, you should consider retiring from camp before losing another family member." But that thought would never cross my mind.

Being in camp was healing. Among the joy of being with campers and staff and the camaraderie of fellow rabbis, cantors, educators, and Jewish professionals who, like me, dedicate weeks in the summer to be at camp, I found a lot of strength and solace. I could carry my mom's and my grandfather's spirits and use them to propel me into each new day. And every now and then, I could share a story or a memory and know they were with me in spirit.

Around that same time, I began to hear from many of the TBE temple family. Some reached out by email, others sent beautiful cards and heartfelt wishes. From the office, I learned that many had made donations to various temple funds. Even 150 miles away, I felt a gentle stream of love from so many.

In the shadow of these two heartbreaking losses, I am reminded that I am so lucky. I have two incredible communities - Crane Lake Camp and my Temple Beth El family - who so readily wrap their arms around me, giving me a sense of hope and comfort.

I am thankful to everyone who has expressed sympathy and condolences (and I am working to get out those thank-you notes). And I hope that everyone who reads these words, all who are part of Temple Beth El, will know that love and support is ready for you, too. That is what it means to be part of a community - to give of our hearts and love as we can and then to receive the same when we need it. That is one of the core values I believe we embrace as a synagogue.

When you need, please reach out. We do not always know what is happening in the lives of our community members. However, there is a lot of love and kindness and support here. And it is here for you, too.

What Is Sisterhood?

- Jen Freed, Sisterhood President

It is my hope that you are comfortable and feel welcomed every time you walk through the doors of our temple. Over the years, I have learned to appreciate firsthand the enrichment of Sisterhood's events. The Sisterhood of Temple Beth El means so much to me as the women are my friends, and are a vital part of our congregation.

Sisterhood is itself a member of Women of Reform Judaism which links us to all other Reform Sisterhoods through the regional WRJ Northeast District and national Women of Reform Judaism. The goal of our organization is to provide spiritual, emotional, and social support to our members, along with service and financial support to the entire temple community. We work for social justice in the community and world at large. We support Jewish learning on all levels and the social justice positions of WRJ.

Our Sisterhood is a group of multi-generational women who join together for friendship, mitzvot, socializing, learning and networking through educational, cultural and community programs. We believe this inspires true friendship among women of all backgrounds and ages. For example, in preparation for Rosh Hashanah, we packaged greeting cards, apples, and honey to send out to our temple families welcoming the Jewish New Year. Sisterhood uses the profits from such fundraisers to help finance Religious School, temple programs, and an exciting, new opportunity for young adults to engage with Rabbi Jeff.

We hope you will think about joining us if you share the common thread of love for our temple, as Sisterhood supports all aspects of temple life. As a Board, we want to gather all the women of our community together through social events and stimulating Jewish programs. Keep an eye out for information about monthly events, scheduled luncheons, and opportunities for engagement.

In October, we will host our annual Fall Rummage Sale, so start gathering those donations! We will also be having our membership brunch off-site in December and are looking forward to gathering as a community.

We have an open monthly meeting and all Sisterhood members are able to attend. Please check the temple calendar for dates and times. We would love to have you join us in any or all of our activities. Please let us know what you would enjoy, and if you are willing to assist planning an event or have expertise to share with our membership! Should you have suggestions, concerns or questions, please reach out to us at sisterhood@tbeli.org and a member of the Board will get back to you.

Meet Lauren Chizner, our New Religious School Director

Hello! I have just returned from two months in the Berkshires where I have spent the past 17 summers as the Director of Jewish Life at URJ Crane Lake Camp. I love spending my summers with friends breathing in the Berkshire air, watching the sunsets, the storms rolling in, and just living camp life. But what I love most is watching how Judaism and Jewish values play out on the fields and courts, in the bunks, in the friendships. Our camp song speaks about Jewish pride! I feel this sense of Jewish pride throughout the camp, from the campers to the staff, and it is this pride that I hope to instill within each of our TBE students.

Our goal, for this upcoming school year, is to instill within our students a feeling of belonging and a sense of pride in being Jewish, all while nurturing their love of Judaism. We want our students to understand that they are part of something greater than the Temple Beth El community; to understand that there are Jews around the world who say the same prayers we do. Jewish pride comes in understanding our holidays, rituals, and traditions. I want our students to find meaning in our Torah stories and understand how the decisions we make in our lives are based on our values...our Jewish values.

I am excited for our upcoming year. I look forward to meeting everyone and welcoming our students and families back to school in September!

Be a Hero: Join the Sandwich Program!

- Jack Schatten

Hello! I am Jack Schatten, and as part of Social Action, I run the sandwich making program here at Temple Beth El. In this issue of The Buzz, we wanted to share some of our sandwich story.

First, a little about me. I've been a member of TBE for almost 20 years (I did start Hebrew school when I was 7, but still). My volunteering journey started when I was preparing for my Bar Mitzvah. I volunteered every week here at the temple for H.I.H.I. (Huntington Interfaith Homeless Initiative), and monthly at St. Hugh's Church for Project H.O.P.E. (Helping Other People Eat). Even after fulfilling my Bar Mitzvah community service hours, I continued to find ways to get involved, leaning in where I could, and continuing with the Sunday Suppers. Then COVID hit and all the programs hit pause.

That brings us to the sandwiches. In the summer of 2021, we partnered with Tri-CYA (Tri Community and Youth Agency) in Huntington. We hit the ground running, making 60 sandwiches a week that we then delivered for the children who attend Tri-CYA programs on Fridays and Saturdays. Our wonderful regular volunteers Aleta, Harlee, Lori, Myra, and Sherry are often assisted by B'nei Mitzvah students, doing their community service. Without this group's participation and their help shopping for, making, and delivering the sandwiches, we would not have so successfully maintained the program over the past two years. And it's getting even better! Due to some generous donations, on top of the incredible generosity of the grant administered by the family of Mina & Irving Klein, in October, we will be able to expand our sandwich program to twice weekly, including Sundays. As part of this expansion, we would love to bring on new volunteers to help with our existing Thursday time slot (4:30 to 5:10-ish), and/or the new Sunday morning time slot (exact time TBD).

If you are interested, please contact me at jackms@bu.edu and include "TBE Sandwiches" in the subject line. We would love to have you help out, and if you have children in the Religious School, they are of course welcome to help out as well! Your generosity and interest is greatly appreciated. We look forward to having more people to help people in the Huntington community, the people that we live with and interact with every day.

I want to close with another big THANK YOU to the volunteers who have made this possible so far; a preemptive thank you to anyone who helps out in the future, and a special thank you to Sue Seiler, Carol Werblin and the dozens of others involved in Social Action who, throughout the years, have allowed me to give back and enable others to give back to our community.

Keeping Up With Brotherhood

- Ian Weitz, Brotherhood President

The members of Temple Beth El's Brotherhood are the folks who listen to your stories and complaints and are genuinely interested. Come to a meeting with a plan for a project and/or a get together and the Brotherhood will do our best to make it happen.

Brotherhood's ROMEO wing (Retired Old Men Eating Out...or One), continue to meet in person at the temple or on Zoom on Mondays from 12:00 noon until about 1:30 over lunch. We enjoy each other's company and share jokes, humorous stories, funny video clips and an occasional educational segment. All are invited regardless of work status, gender or age. Although we were off for the month of August, we're looking forward to starting up again in September. The first lunch will be bagels with all the fixings and a presentation on Men's Health by Dr. Richard Schoor. The Brotherhood's Summer Get-Together (pictured) was held on Saturday, August 19th at the home of David Mullen and Paula Edelman over a light and delicious meal of Italian food and select wines. It is safe to say that a good time was had by all. Unfortunately, space was limited and we are sorry that not all who wanted to were able to attend.

If you're interested in ushering during the High Holy Days, helping with the construction of the Sukkah, or would just like to get on the Brotherhood email list, please contact Mike Widawsky at michaelwidawsky@yahoo.com.
