Finding the Win in Every Swing

- Rabbi Jeff Clopper

I came across a story recently that made me smile.

A young boy decided to play some baseball in his backyard. Though none of his friends were around, he was determined to get in a “few innings.” With bat and ball in hand, he loudly announced, “I’m the greatest hitter in the world!”

He tossed the ball into the air, swung hard - and missed. “Strike one!” he yelled.

He picked up the ball and said again, “I’m the greatest hitter in the world!” Feeling confident this time, he lobbed the ball, swung...and missed again. “Strike two!”

The boy examined his bat and ball. He spat on his hands, rubbed them together, tugged his cap, and repeated, “I’m the greatest hitter in the world!” One more toss, one more mighty swing...and one more miss. “Strike three!”

“Wow!” the boy exclaimed. “I’m the greatest pitcher in the world!”

As I write this article, the Toronto Blue Jays and Los Angeles Dodgers are locked in a close playoff battle. (I can already hear the sighs from fans of the Yankees and Mets!) So, perhaps it’s no surprise that a baseball story caught my attention.

There have always been fascinating connections between baseball and the Jewish people. Along with well-known players - like Sandy Koufax, who famously refused to pitch on Yom Kippur - there have been countless Jewish figures, both on the field and behind the scenes, who’ve shaped the game since its earliest days.

In professional sports, there’s often a belief that anything short of a championship is a failure. With such high stakes (and even higher salaries), that mindset makes sense. But many of us fall into the same trap in our own lives. When we set our sights on one particular goal, it’s easy to measure our worth by that single outcome. And when things don’t go as planned, we can feel like we’ve struck out completely.

That’s why I love the spirit of this young ballplayer. Life doesn’t always go the way we expect - but that doesn’t mean we’ve failed. Sometimes it just means we need to look at things from another angle.

In Pirkei Avot, a beloved collection of rabbinic teachings, we read: “Who is rich? One who rejoices in what he has.” (Pirkei Avot 4:1) It’s easy to focus on what went wrong or what we’re missing. But when we take stock of what we do have - our blessings, our opportunities, and even our lessons learned—then every moment can hold a hidden victory.

So I wish you many home runs in the season ahead... and maybe a few errant swings too, if they help open the door to new opportunities, fresh perspectives, and unexpected joy.

The Temple Beth El Brotherhood is about social activities and service. Join Brotherhood and meet TBE members and help around the temple. It's a mitzvah...and therapists tells us, you will feel better and live longer. Join a temple and your kids will be Jewish; participate and your grandkids will be Jewish. So kenahora - even if you can't participate, join anyway.

Brotherhood was busy working around the temple, preparing for High Holy Days and Sukkot by cleaning up, ushering, working with security, and building the Sukkah. Ushers included Mark Goldman, Mike Heiberger, Steve and Sophie (our honorary member) Karp, Mitch Kittenplan, Joe Perlman, Joel Shapiro, Lenny Thaw, Ian Weitz, Mike and Jonathan Widawsky, and Bob Zucker. Shofar blowers were Barry Schwalb and Lenny Thaw. Brotherhood choir members included Tom Cohn, Doug Gilman, Rich Ostreich, Andy Pinals and Barry Schwalb.

Making the walk along Park Avenue a bit easier, the Brotherhood arm of the Beautification Committee cleared the walkway. We picked up trash, weed whacked, and scraped up overgrowth from the sidewalk. Around TBE, we trimmed the bushes and brightened up the building walls.

Enjoy the Sukkah? Thank the Brotherhood for constructing and Sisterhood for decorating! Constructors included Algis Anilionis, Dan Bernzweig, Allen Brown, Barry Dutchen, Mark Goldman, David Gordon, Mike Heiberger, Mitch Kittenplan, Rich Ostreich, Jeff Rosen, Neal Rotter, Barry Schwalb, Ian Weitz, Mike and Jonathan Widawsky, and Bob Zucker.

Brotherhood's ROMEO (Retired Old Men Eating Out) continues to meet over lunch at the Golden Dolphin Diner in Huntington Village one Monday each month from noon to about 1:30 p.m. Join us and help support the Golden Dolphin, which continues to supports Israel.

On August 9th, Dave Mullen and Paula Edelman once again hosted the Annual Summer Get-Together, in a wonderful outdoor setting with appetizers, Italian food, and Dave's sensational cocktails. Brotherhood led the Summer Shabbat Service back in July with eighteen Brotherhood members participating with Rabbi Clopper.

The Charlie Meyer Meritorious Service Award was presented at the TBE Board Installation Shabbat back in June and was awarded to Barry Schwalb and Ian Weitz. When you see them, give them a shout-out.

Brotherhood continues to actively participate with the MRJ (Men of Reform Judaism). September 15th's meeting at Temple Isaiah in Stonybrook featured a speaker who authors westerns with Jewish characters. Back in July at Temple B'nai El in Wantagh, there was a presentation with a law enforcement officer who spoke about on a thwarted bomb plot to kill Jews in Brooklyn. And back in May at Temple Beth El in Great Neck, we attended a presentation on consumer fraud.

Upcoming Brotherhood events include: bagels and lox luncheons at TBE with (and without) speakers, another "Hebrew-nian" dinner at Finnegan's hosted by Dave Gordon, a pastrami tasting at the Lido Deli, and a Long Islanders Hockey Game with discount tickets hosted by Jeff Rosen. Also, possibly a comedy night and/or a whiskey tasting.

Superbowl Sunday did not work out this year, as we had no location to host it at. If you know of a place for us, ideally with a large screen television and a kitchen, kindly share it so we can make it happen this year!

Have a plan or idea for an event? Let us know and help to make it possible. Member or not, you can join the Brotherhood's email list to stay informed. Contact Mike Widawsky at michaelwidawsky@yahoo.com and he'll add you to the list.

Social Action Happenings

Our Birthday Wishes Co-Chairs Elisa McDonagh and Sue Seiler were so honored to be the recipients of the Townwide Fund grant! Their generosity and support of our Birthday-in-a-Duffle program enables us to create individualized birthday duffle bags for the many underprivileged children in the Huntington community. Pictured Left to right: Ron Friedman (Board Member), Therese Mora (Secretary), Cindy Awan (Board Member), Janice Whelan (President and Grants Co-Chair), Sue Seiler (TBE Birthday Wishes Co-Chair) and Alice Marie Rorke (Executive Director).

Birthday-in-a-Duffle continues to wrap and package special birthday bags for our children at local school districts. Elisa and Sue had a small but mighty group of wrappers for the 12 duffle bags. Please consider donating birthday party supplies, games, toys or card games. We're always in need!

Looking forward to our annual TBE Chanukah Bash in December, where Birthday Wishes will continue to be the recipient of your generous toy and gift donations!

Project H.O.P.E. was honored to welcome Jonathan Widawsky for his day of charity work. He really helped in more ways than we could have imagined! We're always happy to share our cooking day!

HANAH (Huntington Action Network Against Hate) is an interfaith group in Huntington that was formed to combat hate crimes and promote tolerance. The network brings together various religious communities, such as Christians, Jews, and Muslims, to prevent hate and support those affected by it.

My name is Ellie Perlman, a temple member since September 8, 2008, and I have been a member of the Social Action Committee since then. I have stepped up my work with them by recently volunteering to be the Ambassador from our temple.

I will be bringing news from monthly HANAH meetings, where information is shared about how everyone in our faith communities can effectively work together to spread love, support and assistance to all in our community.

The following information came from the first two meetings that I attended:

If you are in the position to assist a person who is potentially facing deportation or arrest, Form 4940 is available from the New York State Office of Child and Family Services (ocfs.ny.gov). This form allows a parent to designate another person to make temporary medical and educational decisions for a child and is used for situations where a parent cannot make these decisions for a specific, up to 12-month period. It is a temporary and non-court option for everyday decisions and is different from permanent guardianship or court-ordered custody. Visit the New York State Office of Child and Family Services for Form 4940, which is also available in many different languages.

Here are a few more resources to pass along to anyone in need of assistance:

- CARECEN (www.carecenny.org): empowers immigrants through legal services, community education and advocacy.
- NYIC (www.nyic.org): The New York Immigration Coalition, a state-wide member-led coalition of immigrant and refugee organizations, works to transform the lives of all New Yorkers by strengthening and building our members' power, organizing and educating our communities and the public, and using our collective voice to advocate for opportunity and justice.
- Human Rights First (www.humanrightsfirst.org): Established in 1978, Human Rights First's mission is to ensure that the United States is a global leader on human rights. The organization works in the United States and abroad to promote respect for human rights and the rule of law. Scan the QR code for information on getting a pro bono lawyer from Human Rights First.

Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions or for more information about HANAH. My email address is eleanorperlmanlcs@gmail.com or call/text my cell: (631) 807-5317.

Erev Sukkot "Suppah In The Sukkah": Monday, October 6th

We had an excellent turnout for this year's Erev Sukkot "Suppah In The Sukkah" including our Religious School students and families, along with lots of long-time and new temple members. Thank you to the Brotherhood, Sisterhood and Religious School for building and decorating our Sukkah; it was truly beautiful! Thank you to Rabbi Jeff and Cantor Alison for leading us in a beautiful service under the stars and lights (thanks, Dan!) And truly, to everyone who came to help cook, cut, set up, organize and prepare the food; the evening would not have been the same without you!

Thank you so much,

Amy Bernzweig

Ner Tamid: Supporting the Temple with Legacy Giving

For nearly a year now, we've written about legacy giving in each issue of The Buzz. We've urged you to support the Ner Tamid program at Temple Beth El to help ensure the financial viability of our temple for future generations. Our Ner Tamid program is really very simple. We ask you to consider making Temple Beth El a beneficiary in your will. Your bequest might include money, jewelry, stocks, bonds, or personal possessions. In practical terms, it means adding a clause making the temple a beneficiary in your will.

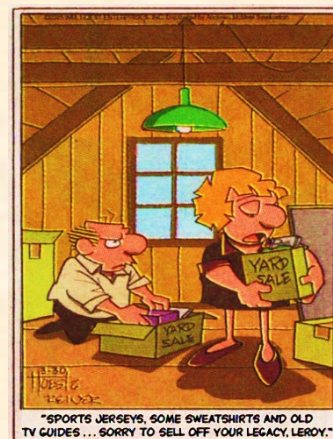

All of us support Temple Beth El in so many ways; partnership pledges, the Kol Nidre Appeal, community celebrations, golf outings, donations to commemorate simchas, deaths and yahrzeits. Please think about what Temple Beth El means to you and your family. Our hope is that going forward, you will consider leaving TBE a lasting legacy.

For more information, or to sign up for Ner Tamid, please contact: Mitch Kittenplan at vpphilanthropy@tbeli.org or Mike Heiberger at heiberg7@gmail.com.

Thank you to all those who have pledged legacy gifts to Temple Beth El:

- Michael Heiberger
- Lois and Mitch Kittenplan
- Marcia and Barry Schwalb
- Steven Widerman

We would like to publicly recognize those who have already decided to join Ner Tamid at Temple Beth El, as well as those planning to join. Please let us know so that we may add your names to the list of honor.

Yes indeed... we had a golf outing! And it really was good!

On Monday, September 8th, we held Temple Beth El's 3rd Annual Golf Classic. Once again, it was held at the beautiful Hamlet Golf and Country Club in Commack. Seventy-two golfers teed off on a picture-perfect afternoon, under sunny skies. In addition to playing a premier course, golfers were treated to a full buffet breakfast, lunch, snacks and beverages on the course, and a dinner that included a cocktail hour and full open bar.

This year's Classic raised more than $35,000. In total, the three Golf Classics have raised more than $115,000 to support Temple Beth El programs!

The Golf Committee: Glen Ames, Len Axinn, Lisa Bennett, Mike Dannenberg, Doug Gilman, Mitch Kittenplan, Josh Messina, Brian Moss, Alec Ornstein, Elyse Pimsler, Fran Silverfish, Sharon Simon, Peter Wayne and Alan Yakuboff worked tirelessly to ensure a great time was had by all.

The golfers were joined at dinner by more than fifty guests, as we honored Jeanne Hirschfeld, an avid golfer and TBE member for more than 50 years. A really great day was wrapped up when we raffled off more than 60 gifts and had another 20 silent auction prizes.

We're already looking forward to Temple Beth El's 4th Annual Golf Classic, which will be held on October 6th, 2026.

Make sure that you save the date!!
