Goodbye to Ken Frieese

- Rabbi Jeff Clopper

Moments of change can be so unsettling. It is one thing when we can determine the time and place for ushering in something “new.” Then, we are prepared; plans are set in motion to say goodbye and celebrate what comes next.

As we know, though, life has a way of grabbing hold of the timetable, speeding it up at such a pace that there is no way we could be adequately prepared. We are left standing there, mouth agape, hands lifted to grab hold of something or someone who is no longer there.

Anyone who has grieved a loss is familiar with this feeling. When our world changes in a heartfelt way, it takes time for the emotional impact to pass.

The journey through loss comes to mind as our TBE community now must move on without one very familiar face. Sadly, our beloved accompanist, Ken Frieese, has played his last service with us.

Several months ago, Ken took a fall and there was hope that, with a little rehab, he would be back at our musical helm. However, as time marched on, it became apparent that additional medical issues were taking hold. Finally, after a conversation with his family, we were informed that, though he is still recuperating, he would not be able to return.

It is hard to imagine Temple Beth El without Ken Frieese. On most Friday nights, all Saturday morning B’nei Mitzvah services, at the High Holy Days, Yom HaShoah, special programs, choir rehearsals, and so much more, he was a constant. Though coming from a Christian background, he became one of the most knowledgeable people you could find in Jewish music and liturgy. His vast Jewish repertoire was amazing, and his easy-going attitude meant TBE Cantors could throw anything and everything his way, which he would add it to the list graciously (four Cantors across more than four decades!).

Ken was the quintessential teacher, working with students on vocal lessons, preparing for NYSMA competitions, and with various classes in high school (Plainview-Bethpage) and college (Five Towns College). I would watch as he prepared to accompany each Bar Mitzvah, Bat Mitzvah, or B’nei Mitzvah, not just figuring the appropriate key to accompany them but also boosting their confidence with encouraging words.

Ken was very much part of the Temple Beth El family, and I am grateful that in 2024, we were able to show our love and appreciation at the Temple Community Celebration.

It is a cruel turn of fate, not just that Ken will not be with us, but that we will not have a chance to wish him well in a manner befitting someone who dedicated so many years of his life and his heart to this community. Cantor Alison has been in touch, and we know that he is settling into this new chapter of his life.

Here, we have begun the work to fill an enormous hole, both in our ritual practice and in our musical hearts. We know, in time, the sense of loss will lessen. But I know that whenever I hear the sounds of piano or organ in our sanctuary, I will be thinking of Ken. And there will always be a deep sense of gratitude for the music he brought to our worship and to our souls over the past many years.

Thank you, Ken.

Cantor Goes To Cleveland...

This June, I will travel to Cleveland for our annual American Conference of Cantors Convention. The American Conference of Cantors (ACC) is our union and the organization that supports the Reform Cantors of North America. The convention will also be host to our musical cohorts, the Guild of Temple Musicians (GTM). I will have the opportunity to see many of my classmates and colleagues as the pipeline for the Reform Cantorate is my and Rabbi Jeff's alma mater, Hebrew Union College (HUC). The Cantorial school within HUC is called the Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music, renamed after Debbie's passing, may her memory be a blessing. It is part of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute for Religion. Or, as I like to say, I graduated from the DFSSM HUC-JIR. Because Jews love acronyms! The Cantorial school and the Rabbinical school of HUC-JIR include one year in Jerusalem followed by four years stateside. Rabbi Jeff attended the Cincinnati campus; the Cantorial campus is in New York City and I attended the campus near NYU in the village. However, the campus is moving to the Upper West Side next year. There is also a Los Angeles campus for rabbinical school. After four years of school, I received my Masters of Sacred Music and after my fifth year I was officially ordained as a Cantor in 2014. Fun fact: my class was the first class of Cantors to be ordained. Previously, the Cantors were invested. The term investiture does not carry the same weight as ordination, so this move was seen as a great way to show more equality amongst clergy.

At the ACC convention, I will have the opportunity to pray and study with hundreds of other Cantors from around the country. The sound of hundreds of voices mingling and harmonizing is beautiful. There will be twice daily prayer services, learning workshops, and music showcases. My favorites include the new music coming out of our movement through Transcontinental Music Publications and the Composer's Workshop. I look forward to learning some great new melodies to bring back to Temple Beth El!

Mark Your Calendar for TBE's Biggest Event of the Year!

We are excited to announce the 8th Annual Temple Community Celebration, Temple Beth El's most important (and most festive!) fundraising event of the year. Mark your calendar for the evening of Saturday, June 13th, 2026. This year's theme is "Strength in Community," an appropriate mantra for an evening where the temple community will gather to honor and recognize a very special group of honorees.

Each of this year's honorees personifies the meaning of community and they have given of themselves, in service to our temple, year after year.

This year we are honoring Marcia and Barry Schwalb and Elyse Besso (and remembering Mike Besso); Sue and Rob Seiler; and Susan Widerman Blog, Steven Widerman & Linda Bookheim. These honorees have devoted countless hours of their time and energy to Temple Beth El over the years. Each of them has made vital contributions to making Temple Beth El the special place that it is.

The festivities will begin at 6:00 p.m., when we will gather at the temple for a small-plate dinner, passed hors d'oeuvres and drinks. The honoree ceremony will follow, starting around 7:15. The evening will conclude with the famous TCC dessert smorgasbord.

Tickets are $65 per person (with the opportunity to make additional donations to the temple). Those reaching certain donation levels will receive two free tickets. Everyone making supplemental donations of at least $50 will be able to offer a tribute message to our honorees and the donors' names will be included on the digital and framed Scroll of Honor.

Formal invitations have been mailed to all TBE partners. You can R.S.V.P. and donate at any time by visiting the special Temple Community Celebration website at www.tcc2026.tbeli.org. The website also contains more information about this year's exciting event, including each honoree's background and what makes each of them so special to our Temple Beth El community. You can also R.S.V.P. and donate by completing the donation form and returning it to the temple.

Once again, we are also providing a Business Directory that will be available to all on the Temple Community Celebration website. If you have a business, communicating your products or services to our entire temple congregation is a great way to get the word out! Additionally, consider talking with the local businesses you patronize and encourage them to support the temple. A Business Directory listing is just $125 and includes a display on the electronic and printed Scroll of Honor. Each business will also be listed on the Business Listing page of the TCC website with a link back to its own internal business website. Businesses will continue to be promoted for an entire year through banner ads regularly emailed to our membership directing them back to the TCC website. Contact Lisa Bennett in the temple office for the Business Listing ad form.

We encourage all temple partners to donate and to purchase tickets to the TCC. This is the biggest temple fundraiser of the year and represents an integral portion of the temple's yearly revenue.

Any questions? Please email the Temple Community Celebration Co-Chairs Mitch Kittenplan and Harlee Richmond at celebrations@tbeli.org. We can't wait to celebrate with everyone on June 13th! You don't want to miss it!

Temple Beth El of Huntington • 660 Park Ave., Huntington, NY 11743 • (631) 421-5835 ext.200 • www.tbeli.org

In today's environment, synagogues across the country are facing a sobering reality. Jewish institutions have increasingly become targets of anti-Semitic threats, harassment, and, in some tragic cases, acts of violence. These threats are not theoretical - they are real, evolving, and require constant vigilance. As a community, we cannot afford to be passive. We must be prepared, proactive, and committed to protecting one another. At Temple Beth El, your Board of Trustees takes that responsibility seriously!

Over the past three years, our Grants Committee, chaired by Stephanie Kellerman and including Sue Blog, Becky Crain, Elyse Feldman, Mike Heiberger, Andrea and Andy Levenbaum, have worked diligently to secure government grants resulting in $486,000 of funding to use for significantly strengthening the safety and security of our facility. This is not just an investment in infrastructure; it is an investment in peace of mind for every congregant, their families, our clergy and staff, and every visitor who walks through our doors. Here is what has been accomplished - and what is underway:

Completed Enhancements:

- 12 New Exterior Doors

These doors are designed to be stronger, more secure, and more resistant to forced entry. They create a hardened perimeter, ensuring that access to the building is controlled and monitored. This is one of the most critical layers of protection - delaying or preventing unauthorized entry altogether.

- 3 Bollards at the Front Steps

These reinforced barriers are strategically placed to prevent vehicle intrusion. While unobtrusive in appearance, bollards provide a powerful defense against one of the most dangerous modern threats - vehicular attacks.

- Expanded Camera Coverage

Four additional security cameras have been installed to eliminate blind spots and improve real-time visibility across key areas of the property, including three outdoor cameras providing views of the driveway entrance, expanded views of the parking lot, and views of the area near the shed and the stairway leading up toward the former playground. One new indoor camera monitors the basement hallways leading toward the art room.

- New Phone System with Classroom Coverage

Every classroom is now equipped with a direct communication line. In the event of an emergency, staff can instantly connect with the main office or emergency services. This dramatically reduces response time and ensures that no one is isolated during a crisis.

- Armed Security Presence (Funded for 3 Years)

Professionally trained armed security personnel are on-site during services, Religious School and key programs. This visible presence serves as both a strong deterrent and a rapid-response capability, ensuring that we are not only prepared but protected in real time.

In Progress:

- New Interior Doors (Bid Phase)

Upgrading interior doors is about creating secure zones within the building. These doors will allow for controlled movement throughout the facility and provide the ability to quickly secure specific areas if needed.

- Impact-Resistant Window Film (Installation This Summer)

This clear protective layer strengthens existing glass, making it far more difficult to shatter. In practical terms, it delays forced entry, reduces the risk of injury from broken glass, and buys valuable time during an emergency.

- Two Safe Rooms (Planned for 2027)

Safe rooms will provide highly secure, reinforced spaces where individuals can shelter in place if necessary. These rooms are designed to offer protection while first responders are in route - adding a critical final layer in our security strategy.

Security Update (cont'd)

What This Means for Our Community

Security is not about creating fear - it's about creating confidence. Each of these enhancements works together as part of a layered approach:

- Deter potential threats before they act
- Delay any attempt to breach the building
- Communicate instantly and effectively
- Protect those inside until help arrives

No single measure is enough on its own. But together, they form a thoughtful, comprehensive system designed to safeguard our community without compromising the warm, welcoming environment that defines Temple Beth El. This effort reflects who we are. We are a community that looks out for one another. We take responsibility. We act!

There is still more to come, and we will continue to keep you informed as additional measures are implemented. But for now, you should know this: meaningful, tangible progress is being made - and your safety is at the center of every decision. Because at Temple Beth El, protecting our people is not just a priority - it is a commitment!

Get Involved: Help Strengthen Our Safety Efforts

If you have professional experience, practical knowledge, or even a strong personal interest in safety, security and emergency preparedness, I invite you to get involved. TBE's Health and Safety Committee plays a critical role in helping to guide policies, review procedures, and support ongoing efforts to protect our congregation. This is an opportunity to contribute in a meaningful way and help ensure that Temple Beth El remains a safe and welcoming place for all. If you are interested in joining, or would like to learn more, please reach out directly to me at tbepres@tbeli.org or text me at (917) 750-7105.

The Temple Beth El Brotherhood is about service and social activities. Join Brotherhood and meet other TBE members and help around the temple by ushering for the High Holy Days, building the Sukkah, helping at the Chanukah Bash dreidel table, the Purim Celebration, pancake breakfasts for the Religious School, repair work around the temple and so much more.

Brotherhood again provided Yom HaShoah candles for the Religious School kids in April and cooked for the Religious School pancake breakfast in May, with chefs Harley Kudler, Daniel Eig and Ian Weitz.

Another Brotherhood bagels and lox luncheon with a speaker took place in the Great Room on Sunday, May 3rd. Speaker Daniel Eig presented genealogy for Jews and demonstrated how to do a record search to identify grandparents, great and great-great grandparents; who they are, where they came from, where they are buried, plus other interesting information.

Brotherhood's ROMEO (Retired Old Men Eating Out) continues to meet over lunches at the Golden Dolphin Diner once per month, most recently on March 10th, April 20th, and May 17th. Join us and let's support the Golden Dolphin, a supporter of Israel. Brotherhood's "Hebernians" met at Finnegan's on March 30th for an evening of burgers and beers.

TBE's Brotherhood continues to participate with the Men of Reform Judaism (MRJ) in activities with other Reform Temple Brotherhoods. The next MRJ dinner with a speaker will be at TBE with speaker Daniel Eig giving an extended presentation on Jewish Genealogy.

Upcoming events include luncheons at TBE with and without speakers, dinners at Finnegan's, pastrami tasting at the Lido Deli, Summer backyard Cocktail get together and possibly a comedy night and/or a whiskey tasting at TBE. If you have a plan for an event, let us know and we can help to make it possible. Sign up for the Brotherhood email list; contact Mike Widawsky at michaelwidawsky@yahoo.com.

Thanks to each of our wonderful volunteers, we just completed another successful season of H.I.H.I., the Huntington Interfaith Homeless Initiative. It's really a collaborative effort with contributions of all types - whether full meals or snacks; deliveries or coordination – making a huge difference to the program.

For those who aren't familiar with H.I.H.I., Temple Beth El, along with a dozen other churches and congregations in the town, provides dinners for 32 men in need every night from December 1st to March 30th. At TBE, that meant 16 nights of meals and delivery to the motel this year, as well as coordination among the volunteers. This year, the exceptionally bad winter weather added to the challenges. Nevertheless, our volunteers all came through to provide delicious hot food every Wednesday.

Thank you to the amazing TBE team. In addition to Nancy Israeli, Matt Kurtzman, Anne Sacks-Berg, Julie Nace, Melissa Radgowski and Leslie Cassidy, we couldn't have managed without Sue Seiler and her dedicated Project HOPE chefs who never turned down a request for meals whenever needed. Also, Randee Epstein, who was critical to making sure that every base was covered this winter.

As always, our super-partners at the East Northport Jewish Center proved that many hands make light work - or at least they make it seem easy! Also, Huntington Jewish Center is an indispensable partner sharing Wednesday nights with us.

I'm so happy that Temple Beth David also stepped up to provide meals on Christmas Eve. I look forward to more collaboration within the temple and from many others in the future; teamwork really does yield success!

Then, in May, we assembled 76 Mother's Day baskets that were distributed to mothers in emergency housing. Thanks to all who donated items that helped to make our baskets so beautiful.

Special thanks go to Debbie Klein, who guided us through the process, and to Paula Klein and Jan Rosenblatt who gave up their weekend to help with the assembly.

We are now getting ready for our Camp Supply Drive. We will be holding this supply drive in collaboration with the Dix Hills Jewish Center. The items collected will go to the children residing in the Family Service League's Family Shelter in Brentwood. Look for the upcoming flyer.

Remember to bring a nonperishable food item whenever you come to temple and help fill our beautiful new food basket, located in the temple lobby across from the office...thanks Lisa! We can always use grape jelly, tomato sauce and toiletries.

Together, we can make a difference in our community.

The Temple Beth El Gardening Club has had a busy spring. I hope you have all had a chance to come by the temple to see the fruits of our labor. We have been busy trimming, weeding and moving plants. We are now seeing many of the bulbs and plants from last fall coming up. If you haven't had the chance to see the grounds, please come by. Check out the grounds next time you come to Shabbat, or bring your kids to Sunday school. If you like what you see, come join us. We would welcome more hands on our gardening days and would love fresh ideas as well. Have some plants that you think may look good, and be low maintenance for the temple grounds? Please let me know via email to mjdannen@gmail.com.

Ner Tamid: Supporting the Temple with Legacy Giving

Ner Tamid... the Eternal Flame. Ner Tamid hangs over the arc housing the Torah. It symbolizes God's eternal presence and the endless commitment of the Jewish People to Judaism and the Synagogue. Ner Tamid also represents a philanthropic part of our temple, and your commitment to Temple Beth El. It's a program for legacy giving that can be a significant source of funds with your help.

Temple Beth El's Ner Tamid program is really very simple. We ask you to consider making a bequest to Temple Beth El in your will. Your bequest might include money, jewelry, stocks, bonds, or personal possessions. In practical terms, it means adding a clause making the Temple a beneficiary in your will.

Clearly, making any institution a recipient of all or part of your estate requires expert advice. It's important to discuss it with your family and talk with either an accountant or an estate planning attorney. Creating a will and setting your estate plans brings clarity to your future legacy. It helps you take care of who and what matters to you and ensures that your wishes are known. Please think about what Temple Beth El means to you and your family. Why not take a small step today for a better future for Temple Beth El. Supporting the Ner Tamid program helps to ensure the financial viability of our temple for future generations.

There are many families and individuals who have already made legacy gifts. Our hope is that going forward, many more of us will consider this option. For more information about the program or to sign up for Ner Tamid, please contact Mitch Kittenplan at vpph philanthropy@tbeli.org or Mike Heiberger at heiberger7@gmail.com.

Thank you to all those who have pledged legacy gifts to Temple Beth El:

- Joanne Fried (z"l)
- Michael Heiberger
- Lois and Mitch Kittenplan
- Marjorie and Stephen Levy
- Marcia and Barry Schwalb
- Steven Widerman
